

VR4CLIMA NEWSLETTER #4

VR4CLIMA.EU

February 2026

VR Course Teacher Trainings

2 on site and 1 online Teacher Trainings for the VR Course delivery involving the 2 partner schools and the associated partner (Regional Directorate of Education of Central Greece) took place on Nov - Dec 2025. Based on the feedback of the participating teachers the 4 Teacher Training webinars for educators from all over Europe were implemented online, during which 185 teachers were presented the project and trained how to teach 3d design and creation of virtual worlds focused on sustainability.

Top News

VR Course Teacher trainings:

185 educators all over Europe were trained on including 3d design and creation of virtual worlds in their classes

Launch of EU Schools' Contest:

The contest is now open. Students can send their designs until end of March!

Dissemination of the project

Launch of EU Schools' Contest

The schools' contest is now on!!! Don't miss the chance to participate, create your sustainable school playground in VR and win exciting prizes! 2 Age Groups (11-14 and 14-18). You can download the contest Handbook and watch the videos to support your participation here.

Dissemination of the VR4Clima project at Seminars and events

On 28/11/2025 the VR4Clima Project was presented during the final event of the "Integrity is Cool" Erasmus Project in Thessaloniki, Greece.

On 29/01/2026, the University of Thessaly hosted 7 students from Aeres Umbo Velp school in the Netherlands and their teachers as well as 7 students from the 4th Experimental High School of Lamia and their teachers. They experienced the VR game and designed their sustainable schoolyard.

Meet our VR4Clima Representative from National Technical University of Athens, Greece

Manolis Voutsakis is Project Management Consultant and Production & Management Engineer at the EPU of the Decision Support Systems Laboratory School of Electrical and Computer Engineering. He and his team developed the EU Climate Map for Students